

Cub Camp Job Descriptions

Den Guides: Cub Scouts are placed into “camp dens” by age/rank. Den Guide (adult volunteers from the Packs attending camp) lead these dens from area to area, helping in each area as the boys participate in theme related activities. The Den Guide also supervises the den during lunch and den time.

Area Specialist: Adult volunteers who stay in each area to receive the “camp dens” and conduct, with the help of assistants and the den guides, theme related activities developed by the Program Director. They join their sons for lunch.

Theme Area: This area may include games, crafts, painting, storytelling or other theme related activities as developed by the Program Director

Craft Area: This area may include sawing, hammering, painting, gluing various Projects as developed by the Program Director.

Science/Nature: This area may include hikes, tree/leaf identification, simple science experiments, fishing, or other nature activities as developed by the Program Director.

Sports Area: This area may include setting up and carrying out organized competitive and non-competitive sport activities such as kickball, volleyball and/or activities involving water to keep the boys cooled down as developed by the Program Director.

Scout Skills Area: This area may include outdoor cooking, simple first aid, teaching simple knots, pocket knife safety/whittling, fishing, the bouldering wall or other theme related activities as developed by the Program Director.

Area Assistant: Volunteers how help in the Area Specialist conduct the program as planned by the Program Director.

Tot Lot Director: This adult is responsible for supervising children of the adult volunteers Who are under Cub Scout age. Some theme related activities will be provided. Additional materials and some suggestions for structuring the day will be provided. There will be additional staff in this area to ensure a workable ratio of staff to children.

Den Chief: Helpers over the age of 11 and under the age of 14. They will be assigned by the Camp Administration to assist with a den and/or an area as needed.

Food Preparation: this applies only to the Fun With Son weekends. This adult is responsible to prepare a pre-planned menu with the food supplies provided.

A FULL STAFF MANUAL WILL BE AVAILABLE AT STAFF TRAINING AND AT CAMP.